

CALL FOR INTERNATIONAL CHAIRS – SPRING 2016 AND FALL 2016

As part of its international relations policy, LUISS Guido Carli promotes the exchange of Faculty members with its partner universities. LUISS is accepting applications from internal units who would like to nominate outstanding scholars and researchers for up to 14 international chairs at LUISS Schools and departments of:

- Business and Management
- Economics and Finance
- Law
- Political Science

The purpose of this program is to enhance academic cooperation (e.g. fostering students exchange, other scholars exchange, Double Degree, and joint research programs) between LUISS and other internationally renowned universities or research institutions.

This Call is subject to confirmation of funding for 2016.

Applicants

LUISS Professors, in accordance with their Departments/Schools, can apply for this Call, indicating the proposed partner university.

The faculty members organizing the exchange¹ shall be responsible for nominating an incoming international chair and an outgoing LUISS professor (applicants can nominate themselves as outgoing professors).

Applicants must also provide the following information with regard to the prospective holder of the international chair:

- Name;
- CV;
- Activities: details of the teaching program;
- Period during which they would like to come to LUISS (SPRING semester 2016 or the FALL semester 2016);
- How long they would like to stay.

Prospective holders of international chairs are expected to:

- stay at LUISS from a minimum of two weeks to up to four weeks, but longer visits can be arranged under special circumstances;
- give lectures and seminars which are fully consistent with the purpose of the program
