

HP Business Academy is a “best-in-class training” delivered to excellent fresh graduates coming from all over Europe.

Through this program, you will actively participate in different training modules which will give you the opportunity to improve your soft skills while gaining a clear strategic vision of the printing market, while acquiring a deep knowledge of HP products & solutions at our international office located in Barcelona, Spain.

deep linking

We're looking for highly motivated recent graduates in Business and Engineering who are fluent in English and have outstanding analytical, communication and presentation skills.

After this one-week training, fully delivered in English by talented professionals, outstanding participants will get the opportunity to join HP as employees.

The program cost will be covered by HP and you will receive financial support to fund your week in Barcelona.

General profile requirements:

- English Proficiency is a must.
- French, German or Italian, as well as other European languages, are highly appreciated.
- Excellent communication and presentation skills.
- Good inter-personal abilities.
- Self-motivation and confidence.
- Organised and responsible.
- Creative, social and proactive.

Business profile:

- Recent graduates in Business Administration, Economics or similar.
- Good knowledge of Excel
- Graphic business background highly appreciated.
- Expertise in business analysis, market share and units forecasting.

Engineering profile:

- Recent graduates in Engineering (Mechanical, Chemical, Process and Telecommunications, ...).
- Project management and coordination skills.
- A passion for technology.
- Interest in working with graphics printing technologies, any knowledge and/or experience in this area will be valued.

Recruitment:

Assessment Centers will be held in Barcelona, Madrid, Köln, Lyon and Milano prior to the final selection of candidates.

Deadline for applications:

5 June 2015

When:

July 6th to July 10th 2015.

Where:

Barcelona, Spain

Grant:

Up to € 500 depending on the candidate's place of residence.

Certification:

Certificate of attendance and completion awarded by HP and Fundación Universidad-Empresa.

Join our Business Academy!

www.fue.es/hpba