

;

LUISS GUIDO CARLI UNIVERSITY

The Centre for Ethics and Global Politics

LUISS Department of Political Science, LUISS School of Government, Reset – Dialogues on Civilizations are pleased to announce:

Lectio Magistralis

Religion and Democracy: reflections after the Arab Spring

by

Prof. Michael Walzer (Princeton)

May 7th, 4 pm

LUISS Guido Carli, Sala delle Colonne
Viale Pola, 12 Roma

Speakers:

Michael Walzer (Princeton)

Massimo Egidi (LUISS, Rector)

Sebastiano Maffettone (LUISS, Dean of Political Science)

Giancarlo Bosetti (Director Reset – Dialogues on Civilizations)

Sergio Fabbrini (LUISS, Director School of Government)

Leonardo Morlino (LUISS, Vice Rector, Research)

Giuliano Amato (Italian Constitutional Court)

Pasquale Ferrara (EUI)

Francesca Corrao (Luiss)

Program

16:00 Massimo Egidi - Welcome speech

16:10 Sebastiano Maffettone - Michael Walzer in Perspective

16: 30 Michael Walzer – Religion and Democracy: reflections after the Arab Spring

17: 20 Comments by: Giuliano Amato, Giancarlo Bosetti, Sergio Fabbrini, Pasquale Ferrara, Leonardo Morlino

18:20 Questions & Answers

All are welcome. Attendance is free.

Info: scienzepolitiche@luiss.it; gpellegrino@luiss.it.

This event will be available live stream on: <http://fcp.luiss.it/video-interventi/>